VOL. 35. No. 19

A Letter of Appreciation.

J. S. Fly,
Hondo, Texas.
Mrs. Fly and Junior Leaguers:— We received the nice quilt sent us and assure you that we appreciate this giving very much. We will open it Home for the little folks about the first of December and every thing will be new. Among the many nice things will be the quilt furnished by your League.

Again thanking you and asking the blessing of God to rest upon you in your year's work and on through life, I Yours very truly,
W. F. BARNETT,
Manager Methodist Home, Waco, Tex.

Capt. X. Wantz this week had as guest his young friend, Mr. T. H.
Blakeney, aged 76, of New Mexico.
Capt. Wantz and Mr. Blakeney were prades-in-arms in the Texas Kangservice and did their part in keep-the red skins from removing the druff from the heads of the early tlers of this part of Texas. Mr.
Blakeney, in one of the sanguinary en-gements in which his company took part, saved the scalp of his captain af-he had been placed hors de combat elaying his Indian assailant. Mr.
Blakeney was somewhat peeved at Capt. Wantz for failing to recognize him at once as it had only been forty-years since they parted, but then the Captain explained that his sight was not as good as when they used the Indians, he was forgiven the old cronies are reviewing their campaigns again. Mr. Blakeney's pose in Texas was to get his moth-in-law, who lives up on the Dry Frio, go home with him and spend the ter, but as the lady has reached ripe old age of 108 years, she reded it imprudent to make the jour-ny in the winter time. While at alade, learning that Capt. Wantz was all on the upper side of terra firma, could not resist the temptation of in seeing him. Mr. Blakeney says home country had been covered by five foot snow before his trip to Texas.

ra Schmidt was brought home from hospital last Sunday. He is very ch improved and indications are that will soon be enjoying his normal alth.

Knits Sweaters for County Farm Inmates.

Mr. Thos. Thraikil, the veteran engineer on the I. & G. N. for the Georgetown branch, has completed a batch of sweaters for the inmates of the County Farm, knitting them during his spare moments. The public knows how faithfully Mr. Thraikil plied his knitting needles during the war, his contributions to the Red Cross output of sweaters being numerous and varied. The sweaters he has made for the old people at the Poor Farm are of high grade wool, and have brought much cheer to the hearts of those unfortunates. A few days ago this big-hearted man sent the old people a bushel of apples—one of the few instances of his constant endeavor to brighten the lives and cheer the souls of the poor and needy.
—Georgetown paper.

Mr. Thraikil is well known in Hondo, being the father of Mrs. Frank Scott Cockrell, whom he has visited frequently during the past few years. His reputation as a knitter reached Hondo during the war and doubtless the life of more than one soldier boy in the trenches was made tolerable by his industry with the knitting needles.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express my grateful thanks to the people of Medina county for the generous support given me at the recent election. I wish to assure everyone that all the ability and energy of which I am possessed will in the future, as in the past, be exercised in the building up and welfare of the schools of the county.

Sincerely yours,
W. N. SAATHOFF,
County School Superintendent.

H. Hartman has just returned from a buying trip East and came in from Charlotte Friday and is supervising the great "$20,000 Purchase Sale" which has been in progress here for the past two weeks and is still in full swing. Mr. Hartman says the people of this vicinity responded generously to his efforts to give them cheaper goods, and that he is gratified with the result of the great sale. And he says that this great sale is by no means the last of his efforts to serve the people here—that whenever conditions will permit he will always be found giving the people the very utmost for their money.

Williams-Grimes.

Mr. C. J. Williams and Mrs. Leah Grimes were happily married Saturday, Nov. 27, 1920, at the court house, Judge Lamm performing the ceremony. They left Monday evening for Smiley, Texas, where they will make their future home on the farm owned by Mr. Williams. Mrs. Williams has lived here sometime and has made many friends who wish for them a long, prosperous, and useful life.

Change of Schedule.

It would be well enough for intending travelers to bear in mind that a slight change has been made in train schedules. No. 110, East bound, which passed here at 6:43 p. m., in future will pass at 6:18 p. m., while those intending to take the jitney to San Antonio will have to rise a few minutes earlier, as that train will leave at 3:05 a. m. in future instead of 3:35 as heretofore.
No change has been in the schedules of the other trains.

Notice.

The Catholic ladies will hold their Bazaar on Saturday, December 11th, in the building recently vacated by H. Hartman. An assortment of articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be for sale, and hot coffee, hot chocolate, sandwiches and cake will be served during the day.

REAL ESTATE MAN IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Feels Better Now Than In 28 Years—"Nothing Beats Tanlac," He Says.

"Nothing in the world can beat Tanlac as a medicine," said A. F. Barr, of 4615 Park Blvd., San Diego, Cal. Mr. Barr is one of the best known and most highly esteemed real-estate, loan and insurance men of San Diego.

"I am feeling better and stronger than for twenty-eight years," he said, "and I can't make my endorsement of Tanlac too strong."

"My troubles started with indigestion and gas on my stomach, then my nerves went to pieces and at times I couldn't bear people talking in my presence. Nothing I could do seemed to help me and I remained in this condition twenty-two years. I fell off in weight to a hundred and nine pounds and got so I couldn't sleep at night; my stomach swelled up with gas after nearly every meal and I became so weak I had to give up my business almost entirely. I tried everything I knew of but didn't even get temporary relief."

"One day my doctor said: 'Why don't you try Tanlac? I believe it will help you.' I acted on his suggestion at once and before I finished the first bottle I was astonished at the way I had improved. I kept on getting better right along until now I am a well man, after suffering more than a quarter of a century. I eat anything, my stomach and nerves are in excellent shape and I have more strength and energy than for twenty-five years. My recovery is the talk of the neighbors, and if anyone doubts this tell them to see me or write me."

Tanlac is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow; in Castroville by Joseph Courand & Co.; and in Dunlay by Louis A. Haby.

Mr. Joseph Vollmer came out with the St. Louis College football team yesterday. He is looking real well. — Sabinal Sentinel.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS.

Hondo Citizens Testify for the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of a Hondo citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney ills, use a tested kidney medicine.

A Hondo citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Could you demand more convincing proof of merit?

F. H. Bohlen, proprietor of a repair shop, Hondo, says: "I always use Doan's Kidney Pills when my back bothers me and they never fail to help me. My back ached at times and I had sort of a dull pain in my kidneys. I was often dizzy and black specks appeared before my eyes. My kidneys acted irregularly and the secretions were highly colored and burned in passage. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured the attack. My back is now as strong as iron and my kidneys act regularly. I think the world of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bohlen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

Married Monday at Church.

The wedding of Miss Rosa Schmidt to Mr. Frank Graff, postponed some time since because of the illness of the bride, was quietly celebrated Monday at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Rev. Father Planchet officiating. The bride is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidt of Devine; the groom is a prominent young man of Hondo. None of the particulars have been furnished this paper.—Devine News.

Distress after eating is due to bad digestion. Herbine helps the digestive process, clears the system of impurities and restores a feeling of vigor and buoyancy of spirits. Price, 60c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

The Wood-Texas at Vanderpool is going ahead night and day and the Graham test on Britsch Bros.' land, seven miles Southwest of Bandera, is said to be making good headway. The Rex proposition is still under course of re-adjustment with no definite information given out.—Bandera New Era.

To relieve rheumatism, sprains, lame back, lumbago or pleurisy, Ballard's Snow Liniment is a remedy of proven merit. It is very powerful and penetrating. Three sizes, 30c, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

The Yellow Jackets defeated the D'Hanis team in basket ball Friday. The score being 48 to 5. Miss Hudler refereed the first half and Miss Reilly of D'Hanis the last half. The pep club was present in full force and did its part in winning the game.—Sabinal Sentinel.

Why Suffer?

Cardui "Did Wonders for Me," Declares This Lady.

"I suffered for a long time with womanly weakness," says Mrs. J. R. Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have bearing-down pains in my side and back — especially severe across my back, and down in my side there was a great deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upset.

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I heard of Cardui and decided to use it," continues Mrs. Simpson. "I saw shortly it was benefiting me, so I kept it up and it did wonders for me. And since then I have been glad to praise Cardui. It is the best woman's tonic made." Weak women need a tonic. Thousands and thousands, like Mrs. Simpson, have found Cardui of benefit to them. Try Cardui for your trouble.

Farm Management.

"It has been only in recent years that much attention has been given to the study of Farm Management. However, from the standpoint of practical farming, it is probably the most important phase of agricultural study."

"The common idea of a farm is that of a piece of land devoted to some agricultural use. We think of a farm mostly in terms of crops of land, quality of soil, assorted herds and domestic animals, having, generally speaking, little conception of the really vital thing about it, namely, the adaptation, selection and adjustment of these factors which result in farm organization."

"The Standard Dictionary defines a farm as follows: 'A tract of land under one control or forming a single property devoted to agriculture, stock raising, dairy products, or some allied industry.'"

"The farm, however, defined, is one of the means by which a human being or a family makes a living. When a farm is run as a business, it may be considered a means by which farmers may demand a share in the products of society."

"Ownership of land seems to make most persons feel more secure, and gives them a sense of dignity and importance that no other form of investment gives."

"There is a point where the average farmer will be forced off his farm through economic necessity. This will be when his labor combined with his capital will not support his family."

"The typical American farmer is not satisfied with day-wages. He expects a farm income equal to that of the retail grocer, the banker, the doctor, or the lawyer. To maintain such incomes the farmer must develop skill as a business-man, as well as develop technical skill along his own lines."

Hence, the importance of a study of Farm Management—the so ordering of the affairs of the farm as to make the farmer secure in the ownership of land, the family safe in a home, and a permanent, profitable income assured. To this study Prof. Jacob Hiram Arnold has made a valuable contribution in his modest volume entitled Farm Management. The above quotations are excerpts taken at random from the book. It is published by The MacMillan Company, New York, and may be had of the publishers for $1.25.

But that you may have something further to think of while you are waiting to receive the book from the publishers, let it be remembered that neither the farm, the farmer or the farmer's family are isolated entities sufficient unto themselves. They are units that go to make up the community and must adapt themselves to the social system and form an active integral part of it.

Hence we quote further:

"It is a fundamental principle in business and a principle adhered to by all successful business men, to buy the best material and equipment used in the business at as small cost as possible; likewise, to pay only for actual services rendered. On the basis of such principles the farmer is justified in patronizing only such institutions as render him profitable service. It is his duty as a citizen to help organize the business mechanism of his community on the basis of economy. The farmer cannot be both a successful farmer and banker, hardware-man and grocery-man, but he may under certain conditions wisely and profitably invest his money with others in these enterprises, and have a hand in organizing them in a way to serve the community to best advantage. As long as the farmer confines his interests to his own individual farm there is little hope that he can claim a just share in the distribution of wealth, or be trained to profit by advantages in co-operation. In nearly all the most prosperous farming communities in the United States farmers are investing their money in such local institutions, and in this way are becoming a factor in the re-organization of business on the basis of public economy."

Sebastian and Julius Mechler of San Antonio spent Thanksgiving day here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Mechler.

Miss Maymie Halberdier celebrated her 11th birthday Sunday by inviting her little friends to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Halberdier. Refreshments of various kinds were served during the afternoon.

Mark how clear, how true the in his runs, every accent in his in-

This was proved by a test made at Mr. Rachmaninoff's home in New York City. He played the Second Hungarian Rhapsodie (Liszt) in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his performance by the New Edison. The absolute fidelity of the RE-CREATION to the artist's original performance astounded the listeners.

in buying a New Edison now, you are virtually buying a before-the-

WENT THROUGH MANY HANDS

But Secret Service Man Finally Found the Maker of That Counterfeit $20 Bill.

The tracing of counterfeit bills back to the person responsible for their issue is a curious and exciting employment. The experts assigned by the government to this work are among the most skillful members of the secret service. The protection of the currency depends in large measure upon their efficiency, and the pains they take are almost infinite. A strange story told by one of these operatives illustrates the difficulties which they meet and overcome.

One day a bank clerk in Cincinnati detected a counterfeit $20 bill in the deposit of a small retail grocer. The operative was sent for and undertook the case.

He found that the grocer received the bill from a shoe dealer, who had it from a dentist, who had it from somebody else, and so on, until finally the secret service man traced it to an invalid woman who had used it to pay her physician. When questioned, she said the money had been sent to her by her brother, who lived in New Orleans.

The operative took up the brother's pedigree, and was certain that he was the man wanted. He had a bad record, was the proprietor of a dive and was just the sort of person to be a confederate of counterfeiters. The operative went to New Orleans with the handcuffs in his pocket, but he was a little premature.

The man proved to the detective's complete satisfaction that he had received the money as rent for a small house he owned in Pittsburgh. The operative took the next train for Pittsburgh.

The tenant of the house proved to be a traveling oculist, who spent most of his time on the road. He was then away in the West, but the operative saw him on his return, and he at once recognized the bill. It had been given him by a patient in Cincinnati, the very point from which the operative had started.

The patient was a boss carpenter. The secret service man got his address from the oculist and made a bee-line for the carpenter. He had a premonition that something was going to happen, and he wasn't disappointed.

The carpenter was an honest old fellow, and told the detective without hesitation that he had received the bill from Mr. Smith for repairing his barn. Mr. Smith was the small grocer in whose bank deposit the counterfeit had turned up. The detective fled to his store as fast as a taxi could carry him and found it closed. He had left town. His shop, it was proved, was a mere blind.
